This tract has been created to introduce those who are searching for truth set forth in God's word. This tract is not based on the traditions of men and pagan religions.

As children of God, we must look for truth in what the scriptures teach us on the how much time we have left. We always say we have tomorrow to change. Tomorrow we will stop smoking, stop drinking, lose weight, get a better job, follow Jesus, be a better person. There is always tomorrow, and we will start then; but how much time do we really have?

Ecclesiastes 9:10 - 12

Verse 10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

Verse 11 I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

Verse 12 For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

This reading tells us that we do not know when our time will come, that it is sudden. You may not have tomorrow to change who you are. The Bible tells us we cannot sit at the Lord's table and the Devil's.

I Corinthians 10:20, 21

Verse 20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

Verse 21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

Verse 11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

Verse 12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

Verse 13 Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

Verse 14 But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

with him.

These scriptures tell us more about the Devil. He is sneaky with his words, telling Eve the tree is good and she will not die if she eats from it. She was not punished with immediate death; but that she would grow old and die, so eternal life was taken from her. Proverbs 24:1, 2, 16 - 20

Verse 1 Be not thou envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them.

Verse 2 For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

Verse 16 For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

Verse 17 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:

Verse 18 Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

Verse 19 Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked;

Verse 20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked shall be put out.

These scriptures tell us evil people will not get rewarded, and we should not desire to be with them. They will do whatever they can to pull you away from the truth. The world will hate you for believing in Jesus.

John 15:18, 19

Verse 18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

Verse 19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

We need to come out of the world and wake from our sleep. Our salvation is closer than we believe.

Romans 13:11 - 14

Romans 13:11 - 14

Here we are told clearly, we cannot please both. This means one cannot say they believe in Jesus, so I am saved; but on the other hand be breaking all God's laws and commandments. Let us ask who the Devil is and what is his end goal?

John 8:44

Verse 44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

I Peter 5:8

Verse 8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

I John 3:8

Verse 8 He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

The Devil was a sinner from the beginning, a liar, deceiving mankind. His goal is to seek those who are weak, to lead them in to darkness. We need to always be ready and watching.

Job 1:7 - 12

Verse 7 And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

Verse 8 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

Verse 9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

Verse 10 Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

Verse 11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.

Verse 12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

The Devil's true goal here throughout the entire Job story is to do whatever he can to pull Job away from God. The Devil takes everything off Job, all his family and his riches, this would be devastating to anyone. Throughout the whole story Job stays strong and never loses his faith in God, even goes as far as to ask God what he was doing wrong, and at the end of it all he prospers. The Devil will do whatever he has to do to make you fall away from God.

Matthew 25:1-13

Verse 1 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

Verse 2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

Verse 3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

Verse 4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

Verse 5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

Verse 6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

Verse 7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

Verse 8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

Verse 9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, the land.

Verse 11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.

and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

Verse 11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

Verse 12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

Verse 13 Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

This parable explains to us the very reason we need to always be ready. Verse thirteen is so clear that we do not know the day or the hour when the son of man will return. We do not have tomorrow to make the changes. We need to make them today. We need to stop putting things off until tomorrow. The saying is true, tomorrow never comes. Make sure you do not get caught without your oil.

Genesis 3:1, 4

Verse 1 Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

Verse 4 And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:

Revelation 12:7 - 9

Verse 7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

Verse 8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.
