

The Trinity

This tract has been created to introduce those who are searching for truth set forth in God's word, and not based on the traditions of men and pagan religions.

The Trinity has been an ongoing issue for the church since the early third century. The question which plagues the church is whether God is truly one spirit or is he three spirits in one. The term spirit is used because God's word says that God is a spirit, and those who worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

John 4:23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

John 4:24 God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

One truth that must be answered is why Israel was taught that God is one.

Deuteronomy 6:4 Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD:

Some churches like to use:

Matthew 28:19 Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

Jesus is giving these instructions to his disciples who he has appointed to be Apostles. One would expect them to follow his instructions yet you cannot find one baptism in the scriptures that is done in the titles of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Let's look at the scriptures once more. Jesus tells them to baptize in the Name this is singular. What name represents these three? Jesus, and we find that his apostles understood this because they baptized in Jesus' name throughout the New Testament.

Acts 19:3-6

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

Acts 2:37,38

37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

There are many more baptisms in scriptures and they all are in the name of Jesus.

So the scriptures in Matthew does not support a trinity teaching Jesus was merely expressing that in him God had manifested all power.

If in fact Jesus is God the Father then what was Paul speaking of to the Corinthians.

1 Corinthians 15:24-28

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

This is Jesus that is going to subdue all things and then he too will become subject to God the Father. This alone should make the most ardent Trinitarian stop and ask how all this works if in fact the equality that Jesus spoke of between God the Father and he meant that Jesus was God incarnate. How does he become in subjection to himself or any part.

Jesus says in John 5:19-23:

19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

He can do nothing of himself verse 19; that all judgment has been committed to him it is not his, but has been committed to him that is given him verse 22.

One must remember Moses, who was a type or foreshadow of the Christ, was told that he would be as a god to Pharaoh.

Exodus 7:1 And the LORD said unto Moses, See, I have made thee a god to Pharaoh: and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet.

Jesus has appeared in the New Testament in the same manner since as we read earlier that all power is given to him, just as foreshadowed by Moses. The Bible teaches that Jesus is the first born of every creature.

Colossians 1:14-19

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature:

16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:

17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the pre-eminence.

19 For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell;

Revelation 3:14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God;

One can choose to believe the teachings of men, or one can accept the word of God as our Father in heaven has preserved it for us.

Looking back to Revelations one can see that when John speaks it leaves no doubt that he never taught or believed Jesus to be God the father incarnate.

Revelation 1:6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

God's written word consistently presents Jesus as God's son and under him, remember that all things were put under him "Jesus".

1 Corinthians 15:28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

This time period is after the return of Jesus and he prepares the earth and all who have been called to receive God the father as scriptures teach us that in the end God himself will dwell with man, and this is when Jesus will become in subjection to the father.

Revelation 21:1-3

1 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

Revelation 21:22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

Revelation 22:1 And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

Revelation 12:10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

Leviticus 26:11, 12

11 And I will set my tabernacle among you: and my soul shall not abhor you.

12 And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people.

These are only a few scriptures to show that in the new earth Jesus is still the lamb, and sits with his father and our Father. These scriptures clearly show us that God the Father will come and dwell with man and Jesus the Lamb of God will be with him. We have even given an Old Testament scripture that taught that God would dwell with his people in the end time, and there are more

The next scripture is to give an opportunity to see how this confusion began.

John 5:18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the Sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

To have equality with God does not make one God. Especially when it is God who gives that equality, remember God gave all power to Jesus in John 5. Let us never forget that the greatest deceiver and enforcer of the Trinity was Emperor Constantine. If one takes the time to search out the truth this man had a motive to unite all the factions Pagan and Christian under one banner. Firstly it reinstated the Emperor as God on earth, because by elevating Jesus to God the Father he was able to claim to be the Saviour of the church since he was able to unite it. Secondly with the continual growth of the Christian church it was developing a real danger of a split in the empire, between Christian and pagan.

Those who continued to preach the truth were branded heretics and once again persecuted.
